Your guide

to the most valuable English qualifications in the world

CAMBRIDGE ENGLISH
Language Assessment
Part of the University of Cambridge

We are a not-for-profit department of the University of Cambridge with over 100 years of expertise in English language assessment.

Over 5 million people take Cambridge English exams each year.

More than 20,000 organisations worldwide accept our exams.

Why choose our exams?

Cambridge English exams can open up a world of study, work or travel opportunities. These high-quality international exams are:

- designed to develop practical English language communication skills for career and study success
- extensively researched by one of the world's largest dedicated language research teams
- accepted by more than 20,000 organisations worldwide – universities, colleges, employers and professional bodies
- supported by a wide range of resources, including official Cambridge English preparation materials.

English exams for learners of all levels and needs

All our exams are aligned with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) – the internationally accepted standard for describing language ability.

For more detail on how Cambridge English exams match up with the CEFR, go to www.cambridgeenglish.org/cefr

The Cambridge English Scale

The Cambridge English Scale is a single range of scores used to report the results for Cambridge English exams from 2015.

Designed to complement the CEFR, it makes it easier for employers, universities and other organisations to specify levels of language ability. It is also simple for learners to understand their progression from one exam to the next.
